

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Alumnae/i and Friends,

Five years ago, Mount Saint Vincent celebrated its centennial as a College. While we reflect upon and affirm the College's mission annually, the centennial was special. We celebrated vibrantly our most important commitments—our values as a Sisters of Charity college.

In the following pages, you will find a report detailing how the Mount has distinguished itself over the past five years. The opportunities available to students are evolving through an expanded and enriched curriculum, campus improvements, and new efforts to leverage our identity as a Sisters of Charity institution. The College's work is inspiring; the future is very bright.

Innovations are wide-ranging; some are unique. All share two common motivations. First, to cultivate that love of excellence and aversion to mediocrity that define exceptional education. Second, to help students discover themselves and their talents in their service to the common good.

Alumnae/i, friends, and benefactors like you are vital to this work. Your generosity maintains the exceptional quality of our programs and the College's unwavering commitment to educational access, while simultaneously providing the foundation for growth and stability. The support you provide the College is invaluable to current students and to those to come. Thank you.

Sincerely,
