

2022-2023 Verification Worksheet (V1)

Your 2022-2023 FAFSA was selected by the U.S. Department of Education for review in a process called "Verification". The Office of FinancialAid must compare your FAFSA with the information you provide on this worksheet and other financial documents. If there are differences between your application information and the documents you submit, your application may need to be corrected. The Office of Financial Aid cannot make any federal financial aid payments available to you or process a student loan request until all verification requirements have been met and the necessary corrections have been made.

Next Steps

1. Complete the IRS Data retrieval through FAFSA on the Web. If you cannot use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, you may order a 2020 Tax Return Transcript from the Internal Revenue Service online at www.irs.gov/transcript for yourself, your spouse (if married) or your parents/step-parent (if dependent).
2. Complete all sections and sign this worksheet in ink.
3. Return all requested documents by mail or in person to

Office of Financial Aid, College of Mount Saint Vincent
6301 Riverdale Avenue, Riverdale, NY 10471

Or by uploading the documents through your Admissions portal or through Self Service.

B. Family Information (Please Print)

Check the appropriate boxes below and provide the requested information and documents:

Dependent Student: If you were required to report your parents' information on your FAFSA, you are considered to be a dependent student. In the chart below, list all the people in the household who will be supported by your parents between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023. Include yourself, your parents, and your parents' other children if (a) your parents provide more than half of their support or (b) the children would be required to provide parental information when applying for Federal Student Aid. Include other people only if they live with your parents now and receive, and will continue to receive, more than half their support from them between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023.

Independent Student: If you were not required to provide your parents' information on your FAFSA, you are considered to be an independent student. In the chart below, list the people that you (and your spouse) will support between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023. Include yourself, your spouse, and your dependent children. Include other people only if they now live with you and you provide more than half their support and will continue to provide more than half their support from July 1, 2022– June30, 2023.

Write the names of all family members including yourself. Also write the name of the college for any family member who will be attending college at least half-time between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023 and will be enrolled in a degree or certificate program. If you need more space, attach a separate page.
